

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

During the week two cases of yellow fever were officially reported and confirmed in the city of Habana, one case February 4 and another case February 6. Both were Spaniards newly arrived in the island and living at different points in the city. The usual precautionary measures have been taken to prevent a spread of the disease.

February 15. One death from yellow fever reported at Cardenas last night.

February 17. One new case of yellow fever reported late February 15 at Santa Clara. One new case of yellow fever reported to-day at Santa Clara; a United States cavalryman.

February 18. One new case of yellow fever reported to-day at Santa Clara, a soldier.

Reports from Matanzas—Inspection of vessels—Fumigation of steamship Britannic, from Trinidad, on account of yellow-fever case landed at Cardenas—Death of yellow-fever case.

Acting Assistant Surgeon Nuñez reports, February 10, 14, and 15: Week ended February 8. Bills of health granted to 4 vessels.

February 14. The Norwegian steamship Britannic, which landed February 7 one yellow-fever case at Cardenas originating in the island of Trinidad, sails to-day for Philadelphia after fumigation by this service here.

February 15. The case of yellow fever landed at Cardenas from the steamship Britannic died last night.

Report from Santiago—Inspection and fumigation of vessels.

Acting Assistant Surgeon Wilson reports, February 4:

Week ended February 1. Bills of health issued to 7 vessels bound for the United States. The German steamship Tromp, bound for Norfolk, was fumigated before departure, to kill mosquitoes. On all the bills of health a note was made of the case of yellow fever that terminated fatally January 16.

No quarantinable disease was reported during the week covered by this report.

ECUADOR.

Report from Guayaquil—Plague.

Passed Assistant Surgeon Lloyd reports:

February 13. The local board of health, governor, and physicians declare plague, Guayaquil.

GERMANY.

Reports from Berlin—Status of cholera in Russia.

The following are received from Consul-General Thackera, under dates of January 27 and February 3:

According to official statistics during the period from December 25 to 31 there were registered in the whole of the Russian Empire 28 new cases of cholera, with 10 deaths.